Ben Bergstrom knows he is no catch. In post-war Minnesota, it is hard for any man to find a job. If that man happens to have no formal education, no practical skills, and a thick German accent, gaining employment is nearly impossible. No one is more surprised than he, when Ben manages to capture the heart of Sara Gunderson. Beautiful and intelligent, she sees beyond the outside and falls in love.

Becky Riker is a homeschooling mom of five. After twenty years of starts and stops, she finished college with a BA in history. Besides writing Christian fiction, Becky also directs children's theater, a fact that stimulates her creative juices and lends to the air of chaos in her home.
