Brad Smith was born and raised in southern Ontario. He has worked as a farmer, signalman, insulator, truck driver, bartender, schoolteacher, maintenance mechanic, roofer, and carpenter. He lives in a eighty-year-old farmhouse near the north shore of Lake Erie. His novel, "One-Eyed Jacks" was nominated for the Dashiell Hammett Prize.

Purchased this book to be more prepared and not caught red handed in an emergency. I want to know what is going on even if I am sitting in the dark. So, I thank you Brad Smith for the great information. I am now awake and getting prepared for "whatever".

Does your family have an emergency plan to ride out the aftermath of a disaster? Can you imagine anything more frightening than not being able to communicate with loved ones, to know that they are all right and to report you are as well?

With a little training, on your own and with this book, you can use two-way radios to communicate with your loved ones, regardless of whether phone and cell towers are functioning. In addition, you can use these same radios to stay abreast of changing conditions and changing emergency situations.

Brad Smith has written 11 novels and almost that many jobs — including farmer, roofer, bartender and mechanic.

Brad Smith has 63 books on Goodreads with 5945 ratings. Brad Smith's most popular book is Red Means Run (Virgil Cain Mysteries #1).
