

Download Blood Kowloon Nights Hirotaka Kisaragi

First off, this manga gives us some background to the events of both the manga and the anime. It also adds a ton of depth to Hagi's character as we watch his individual struggles with both the chiropterans and his own past.

One thing's for sure: Hirotaka Kisaragi draws extremely pretty men, so this was easy on the eyes. And not a bad standalone story, either. I doubt I'll check out the rest of the series, though - my interest in vampire stories remains less than zero, and if the other volumes aren't as pretty... eh, maybe once I have nothing else to read.
