Who Sits Where at a Business Lunch and Dinner. When entertaining business associates at home, the head seats, at either end of the table, are taken by the host and hostess. At a round or square table, the head seat is wherever the host wants to sit. At a rectangular table, the head seats are at the ends of the table.

Head cheese is sold in the deli department along with lunch meat coldcuts. The name and the concept of head cheese sounds gross, but head cheese is actually quite a tasty cold cut! When I'm in a mood for a different lunch meat, I order sliced head cheese in a local ethnic supermarket.

Snack-sized muffins are a fab way to enjoy Keto bread and these cornbread inspired lovelies are great for lunch or breakfast on the go. The coconut flour is what gives these muffins the yellow-ish hue which is usually found in real cornbread.

For those hot days when kids often crave a lighter lunch, this sweetened honeyed fruit salad with honey, lemon, and just a little sugar does the trick. Pack it into a plastic or glass container and add some cheese cubes and crackers to their lunch bags as a delicious snack.
