Home > Social Studies Worksheets >The Declaration of Independence The American Colonies felt as though they were being held prisoner, for a wide variety of reasons, by Great Britain. The official document "The Declaration of Independence" was framed and penned with the motivation of severing all ties to the British Empire.

The Declaration of Independence is considered to be the founding document of American history, and is included as one of the most important documents ever, along with the Bill of Rights and the Constitution. The colonists wanted a new nation and did not want to be connected to Great Britain. On July 4, 1776, the United States of America became a country eventually creating its own government.
