Inspired by his passion for grilling the best steaks for family and friends, Weber's founder, George Stephen, invented the revolutionary kettle grill in 1952.

First, the rub soaks into the meat overnight before hitting the spit and the rotisserie where it is basted low and slow with an incredible sweet bourbon sauce. Tender and self-basting, this is one of the best ways to cook a pork roast.

Dragon fruit, also known as pitaya or the strawberry pear, is a beautiful tropical fruit that is sweet and crunchy. It tastes a bit like a cross between a kiwi and a pear . Though it may look intimidating, cutting and preparing this exotic fruit is easy.
