Book 5 of the To Love a Wildcat series brings all our old friends back, and takes us on another journey with Petro and Margarite as the stars this time. Their adventure is so different from all the rest, but yet very similar as they work to build their relationship. Margarite is torn between being the good daughter she's always been and following her heart. Petro is a world of difference from her, he's got attitude, issues, and then there's the language barriers.
