A friend alerted me to Dr. Andrew Childs' wonderful list of 100 great classical pieces, with brief commentaries. It may be found here. ADDENDUM 2. Dr. Michael Pakaluk has kindly given me permission to publish here some advice he gave on his Facebook page to people inquiring about how to help their children fall in love with classical music. I find it extremely helpful.

The Library Of Classical Music sheet music songbook covers the rich musical period that followed Baroque and preceded Romantic. The Classical era saw some of Europe's greatest composers exploring new musical possibilities, spanning some 70 years starting in the mid-18th century. The spirit of Classicism would last until the new preoccupations of Romanticism defined the next major period of Western music.

The Library Of Classical Music is a wonderfully vast collection of the greatest pieces of music from the Classical period. Featuring a diverse range of compositions from the innovators and masters, each work is arranged for solo Piano in a conveniently spiral-bound volume. Among the many composers whose work is included are C.P.E. Bach, J.C ...

Each boxed set includes a booklet listing the music, composers, historical background, and artists for that set. The Beethoven set 2 contains a misprint in the booklet that lists the titles in the Beethoven set 1 instead of the titles in set 2. That could be one of those misprints that make the collection even more valuable! Set 1 includes the "Carnegie Hall: Looking Ahead" booklet containing a great historical background on Carnegie Hall.
