Some time ago we posted a video of one of the best soccer teams we've filmed today. We only took a few clips from one game and the debates broke the internet. Here is some raw footage from a few ...

It was later than most, but I was determined to become a professional football (soccer) player. At the time I had no high-level experience or connections and long story short, it took years to get to the level professional football required and since then I've played in Hungary, Scotland, Australia and most recently The Netherlands.

The captain of the Japan Women's National Football team Homare Sawa is at No 8 position in our list of 10 current best female soccer players in the world. The optimal carbohydrate calorie intake for a player is 2400-3000, but many players fail to get near this, meaning their glycogen levels are sub-par. Those who start a game with low glycogen levels can struggle after half-time because they have little carbohydrate left in their muscles by the time the second half starts.
