

Download Mills Atlas Atlas Of The State Of South Carolina 1825

Robert Mills, who was born in Charleston in 1781, published this map in an atlas of the state. Mills served as state architect for South Carolina, designing the Lunatic Asylum and many local courthouses, and later won the contest to design the Washington Monument in Washington, DC. The atlas, made for the South Carolina State Legislature, contains 28 district maps and this state map, made from a state sponsored survey of all the districts. It was the first official atlas of the state.

This reprint edition of MILLS ATLAS has an especially prepared history and introduction to these maps as well as considerable history about Robert Mills, the man and architect, prepared by Mr. Gene Waddell, formerly Director of the South Carolina Historical Society, Charleston.
