As summer approaches, lobster shacks along New England's coast start popping open, like flowers in bloom, for the short-yet-busy season. Connecticut-based travel writer Mike Urban, author of the book Lobster Shacks: A Road-Trip Guide to New England's Best Lobster Joints, dishes his choices for the 12 best lobster shacks in New England.

There's no better place to enjoy lobster than an authentic New England lobster shack. Dozens of these (mostly) seasonal establishments dot the shore from Connecticut to Downeast Maine, so it can be tough to decide which ones to visit.
