Treason! Murder! uncovers the shadowy world of seventeenth-century espionage and the truth behind the most infamous miscarriage of justice in the history of Venice. Including vividly illustrated comic strips, accounts of the author's bar tour around contemporary Venice, and painstaking detective work, Jonathan Walker's story of the rise and fall of a master spy is compelling and highly original.

Murder! The Rise and Fall of a Master Spy (Baltimore: Johns Hopkins University Press 2009) 276 pp. Jonathan Walker's Pistols! Treason! Murder! The Rise and Fall of a Master Spy is, as its title suggests, a far cry from your traditional historical treatise. It is written more in the vein of a graphic-novel; a collection of comic strip illustrations, archival documents ...
