Provence Food and Wine: The Art of Living is a beautifully illustrated cookbook. The photographs are so beautiful you could almost call this book a coffee table book. The cookbook features both wine and food information so this is a complete book.

Provence Food and Wine: The Art of Living (by François Millo and Viktoria Todorovska) is a glorious, unabashed romp through Provence and all it has to offer. Beautifully photographed by Millo, it's packed with no end of well laid-out, easy to execute recipes, organised by four principal regions—along with some pretty smart wine matches. Think tastes like tapenade, garlic tomatoes or spot prawns. There's also a brief but comprehensive guide to Provençal wines and their AOCs.
