Welcome to The San Francisco Cable Car Website, the online home of the web's first Interactive Cable Car. Learn about San Francisco's cable cars before you ride!

Die San Francisco Cable Cars bilden die Kabelstraßenbahn in San Francisco, Kalifornien. Das bei Touristen beliebte Verkehrsmittel ist eines der wenigen beweglichen National Historic Landmarks in den Vereinigten Staaten und ist die einzige verbliebene Kabelstraßenbahn der Welt mit entkoppelbaren Wagen.

The Three Cable Car Routes. There are three different cable car routes to choose from in the city. The two main lines, Powell/Hyde and Powell/Mason, start off at the busy intersection of Powell and Market and vaguely make their way towards the popular destination of San Francisco's Fisherman's Wharf.

Riding Cable Cars. It's easy to find and board a cable car. Choose from three cable car lines - two start at Powell and Market and continue to the Fisherman's Wharf area; one starts at California and Market and continues to Van Ness Avenue.

April 1906 kam das verheerende Erdbeben über San Francisco und alle Cable-Car-Linien wurden zerstört. Siehe hierzu auch bitte: Das Cable Car Museum Nach und nach wurden die Cable Cars wieder repariert und der Betrieb wurde wieder aufgenommen und im Mai 1912 läuft der Betrieb auf 8 Linien der Stadt.

The Cable Car has three routes which cover some of the most interesting areas of San Francisco: the financial district, Nob Hill, Chinatown, Little Italy, North Beach, Russian Hill and Fisherman's Wharf.

You may think of riding a San Francisco's cable car as a city "sight" rather than as transportation. Most people do, and who wouldn't? Just take a look at these pictures of cable cars in San Francisco to see how cute and old-fashioned they are, in the best kind of way.

The San Francisco cable car system is the world's last manually operated cable car system. An icon of San Francisco, the cable car system forms part of the intermodal urban transport network operated by the San Francisco Municipal Railway.
