If it is available, you could watch the video “Lesson 18: New Testament Customs—Leprosy” (1:01), available on LDS.org. In ancient times a person afflicted with leprosy was called a leper. “Leprosy is a chronic disease that attacks skin, nerves, eyes, bones, and limbs.

The mark of a New Testament assembly will be that it practices this order of headship in accordance with the teaching of the New Testament Scriptures. Men are to lead the local church, in guiding it (1 Timothy 3:1-11) and instructing it (1 Timothy 2:11-14; 1 Corinthians 14:34).

In the New Testament we find certain characteristics or marks that are essential to all churches of the New Testament kind. A New Testament kind of church is the kind Jesus started.

The following are eight marks of a true church given in Scripture that I believe are helpful for many churches and church leaders. 1. The Church is Made Up of Regenerated Believers in Jesus.
