About For Books The Great Book of Ice Hockey: Interesting Facts and Sports Stories Complete

Unlike baseball or basketball, the origins of ice hockey are murky, at best. While some say a version of the game was played by the French and Irish as far back as the 1700s, others claim it was invented in the mid-1800s when Canadians with homemade sticks would skate on frozen ponds in Ontario.

The NHL is in their regular summer lay-off, and not a lot happens in the doldrums of summer. Here we will look at 20 fun and random facts about hockey since the sport was first invented through today.
